

K-Love radio is very important to our family and community as a family-friendly program. It provides encouragement and I'm proud to have my children listen to the music. Even my teens love the music. If a radio station such as K-Love can survive on Listener Support alone (no ads), it must be important to a lot of people. Thanks.